

California Naturalist Regional Rendezvous -- October 8, 2017

Agenda

TIME	GROUP A	GROUP B
8:30-9:00	Registration and light refreshment (all together)
9:00-10:00	FIELD TRIPS: Meet in the upstairs courtyard at the Dwight Center <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Observing Nature with Ken-ichi Ueda • Cultural History with Arthur Dawson • Pepperwood Oaks with Steve Barnhart 	Lightning Talks with Naturalists: Meet in the Dwight Center classroom
10:00-10:20		Lightning Talk Discussion Panel
10:20-10:30		Stretch
10:30-12:00		Communicating for Change workshop with Faith Kearns: Meet in the Dwight Center classroom
12:00-12:45pm	Lunch (all together)
12:45-2:00pm	Plenary Talks (all together)
	Omar Gallardo: Looking for Our Roots Omar Gallardo is the Outreach and Diversity Director for LandPaths, a community-based land stewardship organization in Sonoma County. LandPaths creates ways for people to experience the beauty, understand the value, and assist in healing the land in their local communities. Omar oversees the monthly Vamos Afuera family outing series, Inspired Forward teen program and the Bayer Farm community garden as a continuing effort to expand the diversity and relevance of the organization's programs. Stu Weiss: After 39 years of chasing butterflies, what have I caught? Stu Weiss is Chief Scientist of Creekside Science, which provides scientific and conservation expertise to diverse organizations as they cope with the rapidly changing 21st Century environment. He has researched the Bay checkerspot butterfly and serpentine grasslands since 1979, and has authored numerous scientific papers concerning climate change/microclimate, population dynamics, nitrogen deposition, and conservation ecology.
2:00-3:00pm	Lightning Talks with Naturalists: Meet in the Dwight Center classroom	FIELD TRIPS: Meet in the upstairs courtyard at the Dwight Center <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pepperwood Butterflies with Liam O'Brien • Cyanotype Workshop with Jessica Layton • Climate Walk with Stu Weiss
3:00-3:20pm	Lightning Talk Discussion Panel
3:20-3:30pm	Stretch
3:30-5:00pm	Communicating for Change workshop with Faith Kearns: Meet in the Dwight Center classroom
5:00-6:00pm	Closing reception with snacks (all together)	